The Obstacle Course - Kindle edition by Freedman, J. F ...

Best of all, The Obstacle Course confirms Freedman's talent for telling a compelling story in a full and rich original voice that marks him as a novelist with a limitless future. "Like real life, The Obstacle Course is both heartbreaking and oddly helpful. I liked Ray Poole. His story is poignant, honest, and thoroughly memorable."

JF Freedman: The Obstacle Course

Episodic coming-of-age tale from Freedman, here showing little of the flair for high melodrama that marked his robust literary debut, Against the Wind (1991). The title refers not only to the obstacle course at the Naval Academy at Annapolis that narrator Ray Poole, 15, likes to sneak onto during the winter of 1957, but also to the barricades to happiness that he must leap on his way to ...
